

PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT: ELITE PERFORMANCE NORDIC FOOTWEAR

Job Location: Ried im Innkreis, Austria

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Execution of footwear research and development projects
- Execution of market and competitor analyses
- Creation of new performance footwear solutions
- Close coordination with athlete services team on custom-fit and custom-made products
- Direct interaction with elite Fischer athletes to incorporate their insights into the development process
- All phases of product conceptualization, prototyping, and commercialization
- Overseeing and analyzing complete product and consumer testing process

REQUIREMENTS

- Degree and professional experience in orthopedic footwear, physical therapy, or sports science
- High level of interest and involvement in Nordic skiing or endurance sports
- Hands-on approach to projects
- Ability to successfully complete tasks independently
- Ability to travel, with mobility on demanding terrain
- Competence in spoken and written English

BENEFITS

- Responsibility for an important business category with attractive opportunities for advancement
- Innovative technical environment at a leading sports equipment brand
- Industry competitive salary based on qualifications and experience
- On-site employee cafeteria
- Personal use of Fischer products

Please send your application documents, including résumé and photo to:

Fischer Sports GmbH
Attn: Mag. Philipp Möseneder
Fischerstraße 8
4910 Ried im Innkreis
jobs@fischersports.com